GARATHO CHORUS OFFERS PROGRAM

Large Audience Enjoys Concert In Pearson Auditorium
—Sponsored By Guild

The third annual concert presented by the Garrath Chorus of 15 trained voices, who enthusiastically received last night in Pearson Auditorium by an audience of more than 100. According to followers of the Garrath chorus who have heard the excellent perform the past three years, the group last night showed a decided improvement in technique, blending and power. They credit the assistance of last night's accompanist in the chorus leader, Miss Helen of Quigley. After the concert the chorus and its sponsor, the Friendship Guild of the First Lutheran Church, were guests of Mrs. James Hines at Hines's Tea room on Fairview street.

Guests included Josephine Hunsicker, Mrs. Isabel B. Sherry, Dr. Harold Margaret Thorsen of Ashland, and Misses Lorraine Richard and Irene Hales.

The performance was opened by the selection "Waltz of the Flowers" by Tchaikovsky, followed by vocal selections by Miss Margaret Thorsen of Ashland whose previous songs of "I Hear a Flower in the Wind" and "I Love to My Heart" ending in the chorus song "My Garden is
